

Philanthropy New York's Measuring What Matters: Funder Evaluation Application 2019

Thank you for your interest in Philanthropy New York's new three-part evaluation series.

This cohort based learning experience is designed to help philanthropic professionals look internally at their foundation's values, practices, and strategies in service of building a culture of evaluation and quality improvement. The goal of this application process is to identify a cohort of participants who have the experience and influence to engage their organizations in learning and evaluation.

Please indicate that you are available to attend each of the following three sessions (lunch will be served each day):

□ Thursday, May 23, 2019 9:00 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

□ Thursday, June 13, 2019 9:00 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

□ Thursday, June 20, 2019 9:00 a.m. – 1:30 p.m.

WHO SHOULD APPLY:

This series is only open to Philanthropy New York members. PNY Members who occupy either a grantmaking role or who work with grantmakers within the organization are best suited to join the cohort. We welcome up to two members from the same organization to attend.

Applicants should have an interest in and the ability to:

- Consider core underlying questions like who cares and what for when it comes to your foundation's evaluation practice.
- Examine the alignment between mission, values, and your foundation's evaluation practice
- Understand the ecosystem in which your foundation's evaluation practice exists
- Connect your foundation's strategy to the outcomes the foundation believes will occur as a result of funding

- Develop good evaluation questions that help your foundation consider different evaluation methodologies
- Support your foundation to identify ways that data can be collected through "everyday" foundation processes

• Engage others around the foundation to build a process for internal evaluation and quality improvement Applicants applying as a pair should submit one joint application. If you are the only individual from your foundation, please fill out an individual application. **The deadline for submission is May 1, 2019**
