

Thank you for your interest in Essential Skills and Strategies, Class of 2022!

Please complete the application below and have your supervisor complete the supervisor statement of support by Friday, February 11.

Your application will be read by Philanthropy New York staff and if selected, ESS faculty.

We will follow-up with all applicants by Friday, February 18th,

Please hold the following ESS dates on your calendar. All sessions will be 9:30 am - 12 pm ET.

- Tuesday, March 8th
- Friday, March 11th,
- Wednesday, March 16th
- Friday, March 18th
- Wednesday, March 23rd
- Friday, March 25th
- Wednesday, March 30th
- Friday, April 1st
- Wednesday, April 6th
- Friday, April 8th
- Wednesday, April 13th
- Friday, April 15th
- Wednesday, April 27th
- Friday, April 29th

 1. Applicant Information:

Name:

Organization:

Title / Position at Organization:

Email Address (work):

Phone Number (cell):

* 2. How long have you been in your current position?

* 3. What year did you enter the philanthropic field?

* 4. Have you worked for a nonprofit or grantseeking organization before?

Yes

No

If yes, please list affiliation and role:

* 5. Describe the scope of your role and level of responsibility as it relates to grantmaking (i.e., programmatic due diligence, making and communicating funding recommendations and decisions, assessing grant or portfolio performance, etc).

* 6. What do you hope to get out of this program?

* 7. How do you see participating in ESS helping you to improve your effectiveness in your position?

* 8. Based on the learning objectives for ESS described above, please share any training or education that has built your capacity in these areas.

* 9. ESS is structured to provide an intense peer learning experience for a small cohort (25 participants). Please provide a brief example of how you have contributed to productive group work/peer learning environments in the past.

10. Additional Comments

* 11. ESS is a significant time commitment. In addition to participating in 14 sessions, participants commit 6 – 8 hours to pre-reading and homework.

Yes, I can make this commitment

Additional Info