Why communicate?

• Secure more support for this work by amplifying the value of grassroots organizations that build community and influence policy change; promote an approach to grant making that emphasizes transparency, accessibility, and respect for grantees as experts.

• We need tools to communicate the foundation’s approach, amplify the work of its grantees, and influence sectors most relevant to its work: philanthropy, nonprofit, and government.
Who We Are

The New York Foundation is a steadfast supporter of community organizing and advocacy in New York City.

How We Work

The Foundation places a priority on supporting community organizing and advocacy strategies.

Grantee Corner

Everything New York Foundation Grantees need to maintain their grant support.

Find your speaker.

Big Ideas. Locally Grown.

Newsmakers

Balm in Gilead
Reflections: My Experience at the NYF SICO Orientation

Posted on August 12, 2015

Written by: Simone Sevilla

On Wednesday, July 15, I attended the New York Foundation Summer Internship in Community Organizing (SICO) Orientation, representing Damayan as an intern. I was amongst eighteen interns from a wide diversity of other organizations, similar to Damayan, that engage with marginalized
Knowledge Center

Search » [Advanced search]

265 resource(s) available.

Sort: Title | Date Published

Food Insecurity of Restaurant Workers
Jul 24, 2014

Food Insecurity of Restaurant Workers
Food First / Institute for Food and Development Policy; The Food Chain Workers Alliance; The Restaurant Opportunities Center of New York; The Restaurant Opportunities Center the Bay

This report is the first of its kind, presenting findings on the role that employment conditions have in affecting workers' food security in the restaurant industry -- the segment of the food system that employs the greatest number of workers. This... ... more

Feeding New York: Challenges and Opportunities for Workers in New York City's Food Manufacturing Industry
Jun 1, 2014

Feeding New York: Challenges and Opportunities for Workers in New York City's Food Manufacturing Industry
Brandworkers' Community Development Project at the Urban Justice Center

With some $5 billion in gross annual sales, New York City's food manufacturing industry provides the livelihoods of 14,000 workers and their families. Approximately 900 firms do business across the five boroughs of New York City. Across New York... ... more
Newsmakers

Arab-American Association of New York Quoted in Vice Investigation into NYPD Counter-terrorism Apparatus
Posted on May 26, 2015

Does New York City Really Need Hundreds of Cops Devoted to Fighting the Islamic State? Originally Published In Vice on May 19, 2015 Written by John Surico Since September 11, 2001, New York City has left the rest of America...

More»

Good Old Lower East Side Quoted in City Limits, Still Tending to Tenant Concerns After March Blast
Posted on May 26, 2015

Rent-Regulated Tenants in Limbo After East Village Gas Explosion Originally Published In City Limits on May 20th, 2015 Written by Heather Dubin A Japanese animation short on television recently caught Micha Gerland’s attention as he walked past a store on...

More»
Movers & Thinkers: Speakers Bureau

Across New York City, there are many diverse and remarkable thinkers on a range of critical issues; yet, too often, the same few voices are heard. Explore our Speakers Bureau to find people who can speak from their own experience on a variety of critical issues. We offer this as a forum through which we can promote original thought-leaders and community voices.

Speaker Categories

Nolyn Abesamis-Mendoza
Coalition for Health Access to Reach Greater Equity
Health Policy Director

Liz Accles
Community Food Advocates
Executive Director

Onisioke Alston
Faith in New York
Executive Director
On April 30th our staff and board met at Good Old Lower East Side’s storefront office on Avenue B.
Balm in Gilead: Collected Stories from Black Organizers

Jennifer Epps-Addison
1/22/15

Eric Walker
1/15/15

Zakiyah Ansari
12/18/14

Maurice Mitchell
11/6/14
New York Foundation
@TheNYFoundation
A steadfast supporter of community organizing and advocacy in New York City since 1909.

New York Foundation
@TheNYFoundation
4h
Sex Worker-led Report Examines New Courts ow.ly/CKcOZ

New York Foundation
@TheNYFoundation
5h
De Blasio to meet with security officials in Washington via @capitalnewyork ow.ly/CJvj9

New York Foundation
@TheNYFoundation
5h
Uptown Residents to Vote on How to Spend $1M in City Funds via @Dnainfo