

2023 PNY Board Nominations

Nominations to the PNY Board of Directors (2023)

Please fill out your answers by January 6, 2023. If you have any issues or questions, please reach out to Amy Chen at achen@philanthropynewyork.org.

 1. Nominee's Information

Name	<input type="text"/>
Organization	<input type="text"/>
Position & Years in this Role	<input type="text"/>
Contact Information (Phone & Email)	<input type="text"/>

 2. Does this individual know they have been nominated? Is this a self-nomination?

 3. Please tell the Governance and Nominating Committee why this nominee would be a good addition to the Board of Directors. What special skills, knowledge, qualities, lived experience, insights, or critical analysis does the nominee bring?

 4. Has this nominee actively contributed to the PNY community by serving on any Philanthropy New York committees, participating in networks or issue-based working groups, serving as a panelist, speaker, facilitator, moderator or resource person at any Philanthropy New York programs or other events? Please provide details.

 5. What networks or connections in the Philanthropy New York community or the broader field of philanthropy would this nominee be able to draw from to inform their role on the Board?

 6. Has this nominee contributed to or led the development of racial equity practices and policies in an organization?

 7. Has the nominee previously served on any nonprofit Board of Directors? If so, please list all relevant Board experience and position on Board.

 8. Is the nominee currently serving on any Board of Directors (Non-Profit/Foundation)? If so, please list those Boards.

 9. Does the nominee anticipate having adequate time to serve on Philanthropy New York’s Board? This includes attending four board meetings per year and serving on a Board Committee that meets at least three times per year.

 10. Please provide any further information that you believe is important to accompany this nomination.

 11. Submitted by (please state your name and contact information)

Thank You!